PRESIDENTS REPORT

Wow, what a meeting we had in November. In my years of Toastmasters I have never seen an impromptu standing ovation. It usually only happens when someone achieves their next award. Yet, on the 30th November, Richard Sami had all of the members standing to recognize his courage and strength of character.

On the same night my wife Denise shared some of our life and provoked thought about the laws of our society.

To me this just reinforced the uniqueness and high standards that our club sets.

I was proud of both of them and also of all members contributing on the night. The energy in the room was palpable.

Thank you for accepting me as your leader; my goal is to continue supporting you all to be your best.
