

CHATTER ON A PLATTER

Moving Forward & Getting Ahead

Congratulations Sue!

What a great role model and representative of Northern Beaches Toastmasters Club, Sue Loucks continued setting her high standard of Table Topics by winning the Area 8 contest and taking 2nd place in the Hawkesbury Division contest last month. Well done Sue, we are all extremely proud of your achievements.

Dublin Toastmasters Club visited

During a recent visit to Ireland NBTC Toastmaster Steve and Beverley Barber had great pleasure with visiting Dublin Speakers Toastmasters Club. President Gareth Coghlan made us welcome and arranged for us to be included in the programme. The room setup was classroom style with thirty members/guests and the club has a lively and friendly atmosphere. We felt very much included and enjoyed the local differences such as Table Topics being an open question to the room for volunteers to answer or two. So remember to pack your Toastmasters badge next time you travel, look up the clubs en route and show your smiling face. If attending Dublin Toastmasters appeals to you, flying first class and staying at five star hotels with lots of spending cash then read page 2 for the chance to win $25,000 !

Club - 6

Halloween theme for the October meeting.

Wobbly witches, wizards, werewolf's and well worn warlocks worked wonders with words and windows of wondrous wisdom with the watchword of the meeting waxing and waning throughout. The winner of the best speech was Graham West who gave us a much better attempt with his impressive expressionism than the feeble sentence above. Well done !

Chance to win $25,000

Yes you have read correctly and all you have to do is send me a contribution to the Chatter newsletter to get your name in the draw to win one of two instant scratchy lotto tickets with a top prize of $25,000, to get you on your way to Dublin Speakers Toastmasters. Don't be shy, how about a joke, an article, photo, or life story for example and send to the editor at sandbbarber@gmail.com. If more than two entries the winning names will be drawn from a hat at the December meeting.
