3. Encourage its individual members to read and to listen analytically;
4. Provide for its individual members' fair and constructive evaluation of their efforts toward self-improvement;
5. Increase its individual members' knowledge of the rules of parliamentary procedure and their skills in conducting meetings and participating in group discussions;

6. Afford leadership training for its individual members; and
7. Provide opportunities and encouragement for its individual members to appear before audiences and to express their thoughts creditably.

Article II

Membership:

Sec. 1. All individual members of this Club shall be at least 18 years of age. No person shall be excluded from individual membership in, or from any program or activity of, this Club because of age (except those persons under 18 years of age), race, color, creed, gender, national or ethnic origin, sexual orientation, or physical or mental disability, so long as the individual, through his or her own effort, is able to participate in the program. However, the Bylaws of this Club may provide for other restrictions on the composition of the individual membership, e.g., to the employees of a particular company or agency, residents of a specific community, or people sharing a special interest.

Sec. 2. This Club is a private association, and membership herein shall be by invitation only. Any individual member may sponsor an eligible prospective individual member, and invite him or her to join this Club, so long as the person is not currently suspended or removed from good standing with Toastmasters International under Article III, Sec. 8, of the Bylaws of Toastmasters International.

Application for individual membership shall be made on the form provided by Toastmasters International. Such application, accompanied by the initiation fee and applicable dues, shall be returned to the Club Secretary who shall read it to this Club.

The applicant shall be declared elected to individual membership upon the favorable vote of at least a majority of the active individual members of this Club present and voting at a business meeting of the Club membership. The individual membership of this Club may be divided into three classifications: active, inactive and honorary.

Sec. 3. All active individual members shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of this Club, and all individual members shall share in its responsibilities. These responsibilities shall include support of its purposes and constructive contribution to its program and activities.

Sec. 4. Inactive individual membership is provided for as follows:

(a) Inactive individual membership in this Club may be conferred by the Executive Committee of this Club on any individual member requesting an extended absence from Club meetings, or who wishes to maintain individual membership without regular attendance at Club meetings. An individual member may also be classified as inactive for continued absence without notice. An inactive individual member may be restored to active individual membership by the Club Executive Committee upon request, provided there is a vacancy on the active roster of this Club.

(b) Inactive individual members shall have no voting privileges, shall not hold office, shall not be counted toward a quorum of the Club membership, and shall not participate in International Speech Contests. However, this Club may count any inactive individual members toward qualification for minimum Toastmasters International standards for member Clubs. Inactive individual members shall pay at least such portion of their Club dues as this Club pays to Toastmasters International as the per capita payment for such inactive individual member, and shall pay any additional amount specified in the Bylaws of this Club. Except as provided herein, the rights, obligations, and conditions of inactive membership shall be as stated in the Bylaws of this Club.

Sec. 5. Honorary individual membership may be conferred upon any qualified person by the favorable vote of at least two-thirds of the active individual members of this Club at a Club business meeting. Such membership shall be restricted to persons whose activities and public statements are consistent with the purposes of Toastmasters International. Honorary individual members have no voting privileges, shall not hold office, shall not be counted toward a quorum of the Club membership, and shall not participate in speech contests. Honorary individual members shall be exempt from all Club fees and dues, and their per capita payments to Toastmasters International shall be paid by this Club. Except as provided herein, the rights, obligations, and conditions of honorary membership shall be as stated in the Bylaws of this Club.

Sec. 6. Inactive and honorary individual members are not eligible to serve in any Club office. They are not entitled to places on the regular speakers' program but may serve as substitutes when requested by the Club President or the Toastmaster of the meeting. They may also participate in Club discussions and serve as evaluators.

Sec. 7. This Club may establish, from time to time, routine procedures for dropping individual members who fail to pay Club dues, who miss a certain number of meetings, or who fall below other minimum standards as determined by the Club or Toastmasters International. In addition, this Club may expel, suspend, or decline to renew Club membership of any individual member (a) who does not support this Club's purposes; (b) who does not constructively contribute to this Club's program and activities; (c) who acts in a manner inconsistent with standards of conduct set by this Club or by Toastmasters International; or (d) for other just cause. Such standards include ethical, political, and other standards of conduct that may be established by the Toastmasters International Board of Directors from time to time and published as policy bulletins. This Club shall follow such policies and procedures as may be adopted by the Toastmasters International Board for Club expulsions, suspensions, or other disciplinary actions. If this Club does not expel an individual member for violations of Toastmasters International standards of conduct, after written request to do so is made by the International President, this Club may be expelled from Toastmasters International unless its failure to act can be justified to the satisfaction of the Board of Directors.

Article III

Initiation Fees and Dues:

Sec. 1. The initiation fee for individual membership in this Club shall be as stated in the Bylaws of this Club. Such fee shall be payable when an individual membership application is filed with the Club Secretary. The fee shall be returned if the application is not accepted. Immediately upon acceptance of a new individual member, the Club Secretary shall so notify World Headquarters of Toastmasters International, and each new individual member, on payment of this fee and applicable dues, and being received into this Club, shall be presented with a copy of the Communication and Leadership manual and such other materials as may be provided for new individual members by Toastmasters International.

Sec. 3. Any individual member in good standing desiring to transfer to another Toastmasters Club may request the Club Secretary to furnish a letter or card showing the date to which the individual member's per capita payment to Toastmasters International is paid. When an applicant for individual membership in this Club transfers from another Toastmasters Club and presents a letter or card from said Club showing individual membership in good standing and that a per capita payment to Toastmasters International is paid for the current period, the applicant may be elected to individual membership without payment of the initiation fee, and upon payment of any transfer fee stated in the Bylaws of this Club.

Sec. 4. The dues of this Club for active and inactive individual members shall be as stated in the Bylaws of this Club. Such dues shall be payable in advance at such time as this Club shall designate.
